I have read the Constitution, including the Code of Ethics, and the Bylaws of the Association. I recognize the need to enforce and protect a meaningful Code of Ethics, and I will hold blameless any member of the Association who may, without malice, bring charges against me of a violation of the Code of Ethics. If admitted to membership, I agree to abide by the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws now in effect and as they may be hereafter amended; and further agree that said Constitution and Bylaws, including the Code of Ethics, shall be the sole measure of my rights, privileges, and obligations in the Association. I further understand and agree that, without limitation, violation by me of any provision of the Code of Ethics, as now existing, or as may be amended hereafter, shall be sufficient grounds for my expulsion or suspension as may be decided by the Executive Committee. I authorize the Association to include information about me in its publications.
